

Shoko TSUTSUI

Title:

Patent and Trademark Attorney of Japan
President, TSUTSUI & ASSOCIATES

Bibliographies

Shoko TSUTSUI has been qualified as a Patent and Trademark Attorney of Japan since 2000. Served as an inhouse IP prosecutor in Nomura Research Institute Ltd., for protecting software patents, trademarks, unfair competition preventions, copyrights, and engaging contracts joined TSUTSUI & Associates in 2004. Mainly worked for domestic and foreign clients' trademark client's trademark cases, and represented also before the court for IP enforcement.

Shoko is a deputy director for International Activities Center for JPAA(Japan Patent Attorney Association). She has been providing Japanese IP system's seminar not only in Asean countries for 14 years, but also in France for CEIPI(Centre d'Etude Internatinales de la Propriété Intellectuelle) for 3 years. Very actively involved in foreign related projects relating IP, like as APAA Trademark Comittee, etc.